

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Please help preserve diversity in our broadcast media: they already are so self-effacing and self-censoring that any further limitations on the quality of our information might lessen our mental health even more than politics and world events in general manage to do. Sincerely. C. Phaeton
